The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor.

Building and Being True to our Values

Brian Rex Davis

CEDAR PARK, TEXAS
WBS ACTION! EDITOR AND PRESIDENT

What did Jesus value as He built His Kingdom?

Values guide us to stay true to our intended purpose. At World Bible School, three values come to mind as we consider “building” for Jesus.

#1 Jesus values seeking and saving the lost!

*For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.
Luke 19:10*

Mankind becomes “lost” when we lose our relationship with our Creator due to sin or disobedience to God. The very purpose of our lives is to be eternal children within God’s spiritual family. To recognize lostness is to recognize the right of God to establish good from evil. To value seeking the lost is to recognize the importance of sharing Jesus and His will, revealed in the Bible, so that mankind’s relationship with God can be restored.

Be challenged by this value on page 5.

#2 Jesus values the poor!

*And he answered them, “Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have good news preached to them. And blessed is the one who is not offended by me.”
Luke 7:22-23*

WBS has always sought to offer Bible study opportunities to every person within every country on earth, both the rich and the poor. Whereas the “rich” of this earth have the ability to seek out Bible study, often the poor are without resources to pursue correspondence Bible study. Since 1973, WBS Study Helpers have paid for and posted millions of Bible correspondence courses – free of charge to their Students – to many of the poorest countries on earth.

Be enriched by this value on page 6.

#3 Jesus values the priesthood of all believers!

*But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.
1 Peter 2:9*

The key to the dramatic growth of WBS over the years is the empowering of everyday Christians with the tools to experience effective Bible study relationships. Relationships are formed across the barriers of culture, geography, generations, socio-economic divides and world-view differences. But such is the scope of the Great Commission where Jesus, Himself, calls all Christians to share the Gospel of Christ with the world. Why does Jesus do this? Why not only assign “trained professionals” to do the work? First, the task is so large an “all hands on deck” approach is required. Second, Jesus empowers all Christians for the task as the power is in the Gospel not within ourselves (Romans 1:16)!

Be inspired by real-life examples of this on pages 3, 4 and 11.

Greyson Morgan, a high school graduate of the Hillcrest church of Christ in Abilene, TX, shares “This Is Good News”. Along with his Zambian brother in Christ, they teach a group of WBS Students in one of the most remote places in Northwest Province, Zambia.

The lost are reached, the poor are taught, and the priesthood of all believers are fulfilling our Lord’s Great Commission in a July WBS Follow-up campaign.

The cover of this issue of ACTION! showcases a recent baptism at one of our Ocean Bridge recruitment sites in Zimbabwe.

Rita Boyd along with her husband, Don Boyd, served as missionaries to Zambia, Namibia and the Republic of South Africa for many years. Though now retired, Rita and Don stay active in sharing Jesus through their local WBS program at the Westside church of Christ in Round Rock, Texas.

In April, Westside hosted a follow-up Gospel meeting with their partner congregation in Durban, South Africa, the Reservoir Hills church of Christ. Westside recruits Students in Durban using WBS Connect.

E-mail invitations were sent to Westside's Online Students and many attended the Gospel meeting.

Yvonne had already obeyed the Gospel and is meeting with the congregation. Though Rita couldn't attend the meeting herself, Sonda and I shared her greetings to her Student, and Yvonne excitedly returned her greetings to her faithful Study Helper! To this day, they stay in touch and encourage one another in the Lord.

Reaching the Lost in Every Segment of Society

BY TIM YAEGER
BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA
CHIEF INFORMATION OFFICER

In 1 Corinthians 9:22, Paul says, "I have become all things to all men so that by all possible means I might save some." This statement was true for Paul and anyone who is a disciple of Christ. Jesus has called us to reach the lost in all the world, requiring us to be creative in our approach. Paul had a different approach depending on if he was in a synagogue or a pagan temple. The core message and the truth never changed, but the approach and method changed with each audience. He did this to reach every segment of society with the Gospel.

Using the example of Paul, WBS has been innovative with methods and technology. The motivation of our innovation is to equip you to reach the lost in every segment of society. We created phone apps to reach those who spend most of their digital time on a phone. We created a robust website for those who prefer computers. Through Ocean Bridge, we are investing greatly in new processes and technology to more effectively process Printed Lessons to reach those who cannot access the internet.

WBS has also recognized that there are multiple segments of teachers and styles. World Bible School was founded with everyday Christians using the tools of their time to reach people with the Gospel. WBS is unique because each evangelism tool can be crafted to your preferred teaching method. Do you prefer linear teaching

Go to Mathetis to create an online group Bible study. Do you like to have in-person Bible studies? You can grab a WBS Study Bible or watch Mathetis videos in person, one-on-one or in a group. These are just a few examples of how you can share Jesus with the tools of WBS.

Together, as partners in the Gospel, with our unique talents, we can effectively reach every segment of society.

Reaching the Poor

BY JOHN REESE
SEARCY, ARKANSAS
PRESIDENT EMERITUS

I am writing this report in Africa after a long day of door knocking and evangelistic teamwork for World Bible School. Along with WBS President Brian Davis and our regional coordinator Machona Monyamane, I am also speaking at the Southern Africa International Lectureship (SAIL). Lectures focus on the seven churches of Asia. My assigned topic is “Smyrna: The Rich Poor Church.”

Smyrna now goes by the name of Izmir, the third most populous city of Turkey. In the first century, it considered itself “the first city of Asia.” As a leading trade link between Europe and Asia, Smyrna enjoyed wealth, but it had its poor quarters for slaves, common laborers and the unemployed. To the congregation in Smyrna, Jesus says, “I know your tribulation and your poverty” (Revelation 2:9). Poverty likely was a general condition for many congregations (1 Corinthians 1:26; 2 Corinthians 8:2). But Smyrna was noteworthy, possibly because it boasted the official temple to the Emperor Tiberius. Trade unions boycotted those who refused to worship the emperor. Economic oppression and persecution continued for many years. Most famously, Polycarp was later martyred in Smyrna.

The concept of “rich yet poor” is relevant to World Bible School. The great majority of WBS students are enrolled in the world’s developing regions, including those served by SAIL. Why is greater receptivity encountered in poorer countries? Why does James (2:5) ask rhetorically, “Has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom?” Because they feel more need for God. The rich seldom pray in earnest, “Give us this day our daily bread.” They tend to find security in earthly things: careers, bank accounts, insurance policies and retirement funds. To depend on visible assets is to make them ‘god’ and ‘savior’. The poor, lacking earthly props and cushions, are more likely to turn toward heaven.

Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you shall be satisfied.... Woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation (Luke 6: 20-21, 24 cf. 16:19-31).

WBS advertises around the world, but most responses come from poorer regions. Some who enroll have ulterior motives. But their hunger for opportunities, for some way forward in life, makes them willing to learn. In learning, they come to know Jesus’ answer to anxiety: “Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these [needed] things will be added to you” (Matthew 6:33).

Some rich people—those who recognize their spiritual poverty—also respond. They learn to depend on God. Trusting Him, they invest earthly wealth in heavenly treasures by helping the poor (Luke 18:22). They become “rich in good works... generous and ready to share” (1 Timothy 6:17-19).

Because of such generosity, WBS offers all its Bible courses free of charge for our Students. Because of such sharing, WBS adapts to changing world conditions. You are helping WBS to develop and deploy the WBS Lite app so Students can access WBS on their mobile devices. Many of the poor, however, cannot afford even minimal internet use. So, you also help WBS establish “Ocean Bridge” in key countries. This allows us to distribute courses and graded answer sheets between Students and Study Helpers at a faster and more reliable rate than the international postal systems. That is why we are in Africa at the time of this writing, to overcome postal delays and to recruit more Students for the faster methods of interactive Bible study. Please continue to grow in generosity and service to accelerate Jesus’ mission... “to proclaim good news to the poor.... to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed” (Luke 4:18).

WBS in ACTION!

Southern Africa International Lectureship

At the beginning of April, the SAIL Conference was hosted for the first time since COVID. This conference is one of the largest gatherings of the churches of Christ in Africa. This year, the churches of Zimbabwe hosted the meeting in the city of Bulawayo. Machona Monyamane (pictured on the left), Brian Davis, and John Reese all presented for World Bible School.

The organizing committee and the church leaders of Zimbabwe were very generous to provide time for WBS presentations. When asked about this, they responded by saying, “WBS has had such an impact in so many countries in the southern Africa region.” They certainly wanted to encourage the continued use of WBS to reach the lost!

Investing for the Right Reasons

BY MARCUS MCKEE
LEWISVILLE, TEXAS
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Our world needs the love of Jesus as much now as it ever has in history. At WBS, we are committed to helping our Brotherhood spread that love to as many souls as possible.

As we create tools that are innovative and effective for this time in our history, we need loving brothers and sisters who are willing to invest in the future of people like this man in the picture. Even though blind, he had a friend walk with him several miles to learn how he can spread the Good News to his neighbors.

Your investment in WBS is helping to reach millions of souls each year with the love of Jesus.

In Romans chapter 12, Paul lists giving as a gift from God just like prophesying, helping, teaching, encouraging, leading and showing mercy. Is it a gift that you have been given from God? If so, will you help us spread the Good News of His love across the globe?

Reaching the Lost Across Generations

BY MAXINE HOOKS | WBS STUDY HELPER

Maxine Hooks showing our WBS staff (Sheryl Williams, Kelsey Taylor, Maxine and Sondra Davis) in Austin, Texas where her Student, Jane Atieno, was baptized in Kenya.

In December 2022, I adopted a WBS Online Student named Jane Atieno from Homa Bay County, Western Kenya. After completing the course “Born of Water and Spirit”, Jane was convicted of her need to be baptized. As I was initiating the Follow-up request for someone in Kenya to contact her, I received an email from Brother Maurice Ouma, a minister with Kodada church of Christ, a church planted in the area through the support of the Las Cruces church of Christ (New Mexico) in October 2007.

Brother Maurice was conducting a weekly Bible study called Home to Home Evangelism using WBS Bible study materials. Jane attended and introduced herself and told Maurice about her WBS online studies. She told him she was ready to be baptized.

He contacted me as her Online Study Helper to inform me of her wishes which I certainly encouraged. Then I received word that Jane was baptized in the Awach river on February 1, 2023. Jane worships with the Kodada church of Christ and is active with the ladies’ Bible group. Immediately after becoming a Christian, Jane began teaching her family, and as a result of her efforts, nine members of her family have now been baptized and added to the church. In Jane’s own words, “I love this new Christian life and continue to study every day. I can’t hide my joy because my name is now written in the Book of Life. Hallelujah!”

*HEARTS OFFERED A GOSPEL STUDY
AS OF JUNE 30, 2023*

Wow! Eight million, seven hundred and ninety-three thousand, sixty-seven souls have recieved an offer to study the Bible using one of our WBS tools. Many questioned this ambitious goal at the start of 2022. Now we sit only a few months away from not only reaching, but exceeding this faith-based goal by the end of 2023! God can do some incredible things through the workers in His Kingdom. May God be praised.

With staggering numbers like these, many times it is easy to lose sight of the reality of this incredible accomplishment. This is not just meant to be an impressive data point. Each number represents an individual soul whom God loves and extends His offer of grace, forgiveness and hope.

I'm reminded of what Jesus said in Luke 12:6-7, "Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten by God. Indeed, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Don't be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows." What an awesome God we serve. Each one of us is not just a number to God, but a beloved being made in His image.

When we consider the eventual 10,000,000 souls who will be presented with the opportunity to study the Gospel, this number hardly scratches the surface of souls in this world who need Jesus. In Luke 10:2, Jesus said "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field."

Our mission at WBS is not to take the place of Jesus' workers (that's YOU!), but to motivate and equip you with tools to effectively reach the world as Jesus calls us to do.

Will you join us in Christ's Mission?

WORLD
BIBLE

You. Sharing Jesus.
